John Dumas Graduates from Leadership Maryland

Service Coordination, Inc. Executive Director and CEO and Frederick resident recognized at December 5 ceremony

Annapolis, Md. (December 6, 2017) – Leadership Maryland announced today that John Dumas, USMC, Retired, Executive Director and CEO, Service Coordination, Inc., has completed the professional development program dedicated to building a better Maryland by harnessing the strength of its local business and community leaders. Leadership Maryland honored Dumas, a resident of Frederick, and the entire Class of 2017 at its 25th annual graduation ceremony held December 5 at the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

Dumas was one of 52 applicants chosen by committee to complete Leadership Maryland's eight-month hands-on learning program focused on the state's most vital social, economic and environmental issues.

“On behalf of the Board of Directors, I feel especially honored to congratulate Leadership Maryland's silver anniversary graduating class on beginning their lifelong inclusion in a very special club,” said Leadership Maryland Board Chairman Eric Brotman '09, president and managing principal, Brotman Financial Group. “These graduates have had experiences and built relationships over the past eight months that will impact their career, life, and our state for many years to come. After 25 years, the influence Leadership Maryland's program and alumni have had on the State of Maryland is immeasurable, and the Class of 2017 should be very proud to now be a part of this organization's rich history.”

Leadership Maryland is open to senior-level executives with significant achievements in either their careers and/or their communities. Ideal Leadership Maryland members have a desire to learn more about Maryland's most critical issues and a personal commitment to be a force for positive change in their organizations, their communities, and their state.
